

Conference on “Leadership, Land and Local Resource Management
at the eve of the MDG deadline of 2015”
20-22 June 2013, at Ecoashram, Doiwala, Dehradun

Knowledge Partnership:

M.C.Mehta Environmental Foundation

Organizer:

‘Network of Asia Pacific Schools and Institutes on Public Administration and Governance’
at the Centre for the Study of Law and Governance,
Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi, India

Sponsors:

ICSSR and JNU

Invitation for an International Workshop

NAPSIPAG at the centre for the Study of Law and Governance (JNU) and MC MEHTA ENVIRONMENTAL FOUNDATION (DEHRADUN) ORGANIZE A THREE DAY WORKSHOP ON "LEADERSHIP, LAND AND LOCAL RESOURCES AT THE EVE OF MDG DEADLINE OF 2015". ON 20-22ND JUNE 2013, at the Himalayan foothills of DEHRADOON'S ECOASHRAM: ENVIRONMENTALN SUSTAINABLE LIVING IN THE MIDST OF THE DOON VALLEY HIMALAYAN MOUNTAINS, WILDERNESS AND PEACE, KNOWLEDGE AND SIMPLICITY, PROGRESS AND COMPASSION.

Workshop would generate capacity to answer three fundamental questions:

	DAY ONE:	"Leadership & Land an untold story of the demise of leadership" At the Ecoashram Conference Hall HOW MUCH LAND DOES A MAN NEED??
	DAY TWO:	"How consumerism deepens the divides in every society" At the Ecoashram Conference Hall HOW MUCH CAN HE CONSUME??
	DAY THREE:	"Battle for river ecosystems" at the banks of river Ganges: on rocks and sand: HOW DOES GREED TRANSLATE INTO LAWS?

To find answers to many such questions do join this workshop and help find solutions to the crisis of governance in the management of local wealth we all possess collectively.